You found the rest of your group here, you guys are rocking out your practice room, you are stoked for your shows, but you really don't have any solid marketing and promotional material. Let me help you out. I've been a musician for quite some time and a photographer since high school. Both are passions of mine that you can take advantage of. Can do any location (although my place in Powhatan is the most economic, unless you happen to be using a sister company of mine for your live sound) and any event. Not limited to time or number of pictures. Very reasonable pricing starting as low as $50 and you can walk out with your pictures on a disc or USB drive depending on your situation. I can also print up to 13" x 19" professional quality prints at the studio, if you really want a wall hanger. Yea, we can do HD video too, just ask.
