I bought this watch from Tourneau at Lenox Mall in Buckhead. This watch is in excellent working and cosmetic condition and has only been worn a handful of times for special occasions. The retail price of this watch is 12,500 and the price of this watch is going up because Panerai doesn't make a white dial DayLight Chronograph any more. This watch is number 585 out of 700. I will meet at Tourneau to verify the authenticity. I have the original box, receipt, and all the paper work. The watch also comes with two original straps. 1 original black leather strap and one original rubber diving strap. I am only interested in a local transaction, no Paypal, no shipping and no low ball offers. I can be reached at
