This is hard for me and I have put this off long enough but the darn Army don't care about pets. We have been informed we have to move and we have tried everything possible to not come to this point but I have to face it. I have a 2 year old choc lab mix that needs a FOREVER home. He is a great dog! Does not run when he gets outside. He is not fixed but he is up to date on his shots. His birthday is coming up in June so he may need something. He knows his basic commands pretty good and loves kids, he thinks he is one. He is potty trained but if you leave for an extended amount of time he does have his accidents. I think he just don't like being left alone. He gets along with other animals. He needs somewhere to run and be free. If your interested just call or text
