My moms Persian mix cat got knocked up by the neighbors Bengal and I am helping her find homes for them. They will be big cats, they just turned 8 weeks yesterday and are the same size as my kitten who was born in November. Also good mousers. They are litter box trained and have been raised with big dogs and kids. Asking 100$ adoption fee the first pix are them at a few weeks old the others taken today. They are all female aside from the black and white one with a mostly white face. Please text for more info. Ready to go.
