I'm Nick and I'd love to host your dog next time you go out of town! To contact me, enter this link into your browser: <http://bookingdogsitter.com/Nick.O> About Me We are a young married couple who love dogs and have a 1.5 year old pup of our own. We love to sit other people's dogs as well to give ours some socialization. We are active people who have a dog friendly neighborhood who will walk your pet frequently and take them to the local bark park with our puppy, Lady. Both of us grew up with dogs and know how to care for them (I grew up with German Shepards and my wife's family had Bichons) and we have been on rover for about two years now. We have a fenced in backyard too for easy access to the outdoors for our four legged friends. We are more than willing to follow any dietary guides or other routines that will help your dog feel more at home. We don't mind them on the furniture or hanging with us anyplace in the house. The house itself is about 1400 square feet, so plenty of space. We are more than happy to meet up in person or let you come by the house to check it out before booking a stay. I hope you'll trust my wife and I with your best friend! About My Services My rate is $35 per night

I prefer to sit the following sizes of dogs:

Nick and Katie sent us pictures and kept us updated throughout Ralphie's stay, which kept our minds at ease. I highly recommend booking with Nick and hope to book again on our next vacation. Window screens take a real beating from the sun, wind, rain, snow - and unfortunately, sometimes their human users. They tear, they puncture, they just plain wear out. If you're tired of looking at the world through screens riddled with holes or even flapping loosely in the air, I'll replace damaged material with new stuff. Then they'll look good again, and keep the bugs out. I would spend as much time as you would like at your home with your dog, we can discuss having a meal, a coffee or the
