

2008 Harley Nighster (6500 USD)

Riding season is here and I'm putting my bike up for sale. The bike is currently financed through Harley. It is an XL1200N Nighster that has right around 4000 miles on the odometer. It rides smooth and is faster than you would think. No test rides without cash in MY hand. If you are interested in financing, Harley offers it through their Private Buyers program (this is how I bought it). I'm not interested in trades and I'm not desperate to sell. Just trying to make a little more breathing room in the monthly budget. I have several new parts put on last year including the air filter and mirrors. I've taken off the highway bar and front fender to give it more of a bobber look. I still have them and they will go with the sale. $6500 obo. Call or text.
