I'm moving to Seattle or Portland at the end of December and am looking for a room to rent until then. I'm trying to save money for this move.

I would prefer a place close to downtown.

I'm 32, I'm employed, I'm active and 420 friendly. I work odd hours. I don't get into screaming matches. My dog is shy at first but super friendly. Her name is Allie. My name is Jason.

I'm just trying to save some money.
