We have a 2 year old female beagle that needs a new home. Her name is Dolly. She has always been an outside dog so she is not trained. She is very friendly and would make a nice pet for someone that wants to train her. She has not been spayed so could have puppies for someone although she doesn't appear to ever have come into heat. There is no charge for this female but since we would like to make sure that you will take good care of her, we will ask questions about your plans for.
