Our band is Not Sure Community College. We are very google-able. Our cover gigs will take you from Jay-Z to Amy Winehouse to Too Fighters all the way back to Bill Haley and The Comets. Our originals are evolving. Into what? That's where you might come in. We've played all over: Middle East Upstairs and downstairs and corner, Bill's Bar Boston, Church, The Burren, Stonewood Tavern, Hard Rock Cafe Boston, The Point Faneuil Hall...and other corporate, political, and wedding gigs.

The chunk of our work is still the small club scene but the momentum and money is here to make this really happen. I have hired guns for a few upcoming paid gigs but I want someone permanent now.

I'm looking for a partner (we split evenly) who has an eclectic ear. I'm also realistic about how to succeed. In order of importance...

1. The song
2. The song
3. The song
4. Be lovable

If you can help create amazing songs and do justice to covers all while hanging with a very non douchey group of people...then I'd love to hear from you. Email me.!
