I have 2 Africa grays that I need to re home I have had them for a little over 5 years. I work long hours and just can't give them the attention that they deserve and need. The female is named Stella and is about 7 years old and the Male is names Stuart and is 10 years old. Stuart is the talker out of the two and picks up new words within a few days but Stella loves to make sound affects. They are really great birds but they need someone who can give them more time than I can. They come withtheir cage and playset along with some toys and other things. There is a re homing fee of $1200 to ensure they get a good.
