Renovated 2 bedroom / 2 bath house in historical Treme. The house has one original wall (1790). A lot is new which gives the house a modern appeal. It comes with a furnished kitchen. Appliances include dishwasher, refrigerator, gas stove with oven and overhead vent. This house has hardwood oak flooring, central ac / heating (no window units) and ceiling fans w/lighting. The laundry room has an energy saving tankless hot water heater. In the master bedroom bath are Italian tiles. All windows are old cypress French windows with hurricane shutters. There is also a back yard to be reached from the alley or back door. The beautiful big hall can be used also as a workroom. The landlord lives nearby in the French Quarter. The house is near the historical African-American museum and one block from the bus line. The neighborhood is proven safer than the Quarter with a lot of good.
