This is a Chinese Viewing Stone, also known as a Suiseki Stone from the Rare Stone Museum in Thailand. It stands about 22' tall and has lots of intricate caves and passages. It also has fossils of crinoids in the bottom and the stone is known commonly as, "Chinese Limestone" being black in color. I am a geologist and have collected and sold these for years along with Bonsai trees. Pictures is the stone with a golf ball to show the size. It stands on a custom carved wood base for display.

I am selling it for $750.00 Local Pickup only...I WILL NOT SHIP THIS unless we agree to insurance terms.

I encourage you to google and price a stone like this as a "real" Suiseki Stone like this one in certain markets can go for thousands. This one is too fragile to ship, I held this for 22 hours to bring it back on the flight.

Feel free to call or text ONLY.....I WILL NOT ANSWER CRAIGSLIST EMAILS!
