This Architectural masterpiece was designed in 1950 by world famous architect Alfred Preis. Alfred Preis designed the Arizona memorial at Pearl Harbor and was a partner in the firm of well known architect, Vladamir Ossipoff. This home was recently purchased from its original owner and completely restored to its mid-century modern charm. With period appropriate materials such as Formica, cork and redwood this home feels as though you are living in a brand new house in the 1950's. After entering through the private electric security gate, a 100 foot driveway leads you to the house perched on the hill that gets constant sun and rainbows throughout the day. There are 360 degree views from the very back of Manoa valley to the ocean. Huge panes glass windows on every wall with 8 acres of wild jungle behind the property. The main level of the house has 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. It also has a screened in 500 square foot screened-in patio, a huge front yard and a huge backyard. The driveway can fit many cars. The home has been completely renovated with brand new appliances, new electrical, plumbing, and everything in between. This is a rare and unique property and is outfitted with mid-century modern antiques and may be rented furnished or unfurnished. It can be outfitted to suit your needs. If you have a young family, there is a playhouse in the backyard, and we can outfit the home with mid-century modern children furniture and play areas. The kitchen can be fully stocked with highest-quality/top of the line cookware, appliances, flatware, dinnerware, etc. The home is located in the very back of beautiful Manoa valley perched up on a hill. It is minutes walking to hiking trails, and a 15 minute drive to the beach, Kahala, diamond head, Waikiki. It's a mid-century modern luxury oasis next to a gorgeous tropical rainforest. NO PETS. NO SMOKING.
