

Housekeeper Needed

Location New York
<https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-448115-z>

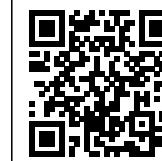

Currently seeking a professional full time housekeeper to live in the Westport area. Please have experience with many different surfaces and materials, need to do laundry, changing beds, deep cleaning and some organizing. This position is live in, working 5 days a week with full time hours.

There will be some driving like running errands and possibly picking up the children from after school activities so you must have your drivers license and a car.

Pay will range depending on hours and experience. Please email if interested and include your previous housekeeping references and your resume.

THANKS
