I have a cute male guinea pig who needs to be re homed. I just don't have the time for him anymore and he needs someone who will have more time for him. I just started a job and been working a lot lately. His name is Gandolf and he isn't more than a year old. He is grey and white and has a little bed head on the top. He is super sweet and loves to be petted and held. He also really enjoys carrots and some grass every now and then. He comes with his cage and his fleece bed, with a dome, water bottle, litter box, and food bowl. I'm asking 150 or best offer for all that. His re homing fee is included with that! Please feel free to text me or email me if you are interested in this little.
