The Outside Analysis -- www.outsideanalysis.com is looking for writers to cover sports or entertainment. I am looking to once again add some dedicated contributors (bloggers) to the website. The plan is to add entertainment (fashion, gossip, movies, music, news and television) to the website that usually covers sports. I could use a couple of up-and-coming sportswriters too.

There is NO PAY at this time, but I can offer a chance at some exposure. The Outside Analysis is a member of the YardBarker/Fox Sports and Sports-Kings Media networks.

I want to continue to build the site into a go-to media hub, and with a few dedicated writers, the future is limitless.

To be considered, interested contributors MUST submit a writing sample (or link), social media handles (Twitter, Facebook) and why you believe you would be a great fit for the Outside Analysis to Ernest.
