I have two weeks available at Divi Village located in beautiful Aruba. They are weeks 49 (December 7 - 14 and week 50 (December 14 - 21) This is a one bedroom timeshare with king sized bed and fold out sofa in living room with balcony. You can look at the resort on internet Divi Village. We purchased a house in Aruba and no longer need the weeks. This resort has the most beautiful beach on the island and largest which is usually not filled due to the size. The weeks are $900.00 per week take one or two. These weeks are for sale also at 4500.00 per week. You will love Aruba and the time share has all the bells and whistles. You must use the weeks advertised. Please leave a phone number in order to receive a reply.
