Elliott Benson Research is looking for individuals who are interested in participating in market research studies in your area! You will get paid to influence the next flavor of ice cream to hit the shelves or what your bank puts on their next app update. You can play a hand in the shows that you watch on TV and the music you hear on the radio. You can put your stamp on the labels that you see on your favorite beverages.

We conduct research studies in a variety of ways including:

- Focus groups (discussion groups)
- Taste Tests (food and beverage)
- Individual Interviews (one on one)
- Shop-A-Longs (held in a store)
- In-home interviews (held at your home)
- Remote Interviews (held via Skype, online or telephone)

For more information about our company and to sign up to receive calls for research studies, please visit our website www.elliottbenson.com and "Join Our Panel"

All research studies pay a monetary incentive for your time and feedback. At no time will you be asked to buy anything. We assure you that all of the information provided is for research purposes.
