I am looking for help! All of my familys income has gone to rent and vehicle payments. Currently I have to choose between feeding kids or paying the electric/gas bill, and we all know what i chose. I am not one to ask for help and i am extremely embarrassed to do so. Please if you have it in your heart, help us. I will give the account info so that you can do it yourself and not have to exchange cash. The bill is $200.57. I would even be willing to exchange some work for it. Please and thank.
