Arts of the World Gallery in Salt Lake City is looking for artists who make crafts to take part in our monthly Gallery Stroll during winter months, from November on. For November and December we are looking for holiday related crafts. The Gallery Stroll is on the third Friday of each month. Artists will be able to sell their work. The Gallery will take a small commission. We are looking for artists that do any kind of crafts, including ceramics, knitting and textile, felting, jewelry, glass work and.
