??? WHAT DOES YOUR WEBSITE SAY ABOUT YOU???

Does your website "grab" attention - does it educate, entertain, & persuade in those first few precious seconds - & then convert a click into a client?

I craft outstanding, original website pages, blogs, articles, & content for small businesses & individual entrepreneurs. No matter how specialized or unique your company may be - I write the kind of innovative, imaginative, & compelling material you need to make your website work for you.

Whatever your business or service is - I can help you find your unique online "voice" - & craft content that reflects who you are, & what you do for your clients!

????????????????????????????????????

I create original, inventive, and highly personalized -

- ? Home Pages
- ? Landing Pages
- ? Blogs
- ? Articles
- ? Guest Articles
- ? Research Reviews
- ? Case Studies
- ? White Papers
- ? E-books
- ? Technical Manuals
- ? DIY's & How-To's
- ? Presentations
- ? Video Scripts

? Podcasts

I can "ghostwrite" for or "as" you, I can write guest articles to highlight your expertise, I can copy-edit and proof your original writing, and - if necessary - I can go through your work and "heavy-edit" or re-write it line by line! I spent 22 years as a professor in academia before I turned that career into this one - and there's virtually nothing I cannot write for your business needs.
