A male singer (23) with basic rhythm guitar ability seeking to form a new band in Baltimore. Looking to be blue grass/folk outfit. So preferred instruments are lead vocals(bluegrass or folksy), banjo, guitar, bass, and drums. I'd like to stick to the classic washboard and high harmony vocals myself. Looking to gig here and there. So it will be a pretty laid back group. Email me and we can go from there. It would be great if you had a friend or so that can play as well!
