Need help with file maintenancetechy stuff (Culver City)

Location California https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-463629-z

I need someone, preferably a young college student, bright and into the technology. I need to get organized and general help with my computer, files and organizing. The project will not be very long, until I get better organized, I need help. The work can be done by remote Team Viewer, but you will have to come to my home a few times for hands on help. I will pay on the 3rd, ppal or cash I can only offer 5.00/hr. Please EM if you are interested and want to help. When you contact EM me, I will also give you my phone #

Thanks. Chef
