On mothers day I was texting back and forth with a lady claimed her name was tina and given instructions on how to put money on a re load it card dont fall for this scam with anybody they are all snakes and sharks once they redeemed that code you cant get your money back they will only talk to you threw text messing when i normally smart about this mess. Scam is what i dont tolerate but theses people have messed the right ones this time and I'm not going to stop until they are arrested. There is a investigation going on and my husband is looking into this matter further working with law enforcement.

So miss Tina miss fake lady you will be exposed and sooner then you think you will not scamming anyone else you didnt even have a heart you did this to us with a baby with us and kids with us on mother days you bitch. You are a low down dirty ass person....

Her phone number is watch out for them they are running a train and getting people to reload cards and give them the confirmation number and then they wont talk to you anymore if you are not met up by the gate dont buy from people anymore its all a big joke but see me im not letting them get away with this at all..... I will post there number all over the internet I will find out completey who this person is today!!!!!!
