Note: If you would like all wires concealed and you do not have an electrical outlet directly behind where the TV will be mounted you will need us to supply a Code Compliant Powerbridge Power Kit which you do not need a licensed electrician for. It is a legal, less expensive option because we are not touching existing electrical systems. This is required as it is unsafe and against code to run power cords within the wall. The power kit is an additional $40 per TV.

Ask about our package deals for two or more TV installations.
