StagePort is a 12,500 square foot sound stage complex conveniently located in the Crossroads Arts District in downtown Kansas City, Missouri. StagePort is expertly managed and specifically designed for video production, television commercial, multi-camera shoot, Independent films and photography shoots. From casting calls, auditions and rehearsal, to audio production and editing StagePort has all the resources you need.

StagePort was built on the foundation of a personal commitment to create the highest quality production facility possible. We believe in placing the client first because good business should be about relationships and client satisfaction. Our sound stage/studio is available for booking all projects and productions.

As a result of our combined background in photography, video, film, audio and television productions, we know how stressful our industry can be. Projects are invariably time sensitive, under budget constraints or both. Our job is to do anything and everything to make sure that your product, production and presentation looks and sounds its best when you are done.

From green screen to custom backgrounds, anything can be created in the two sound stages at StagePort
