My name is David Landry and I am an experienced, state-licensed math teacher available for math tutoring. Algebra I and Pre-Algebra are my specialties.

Tutoring can take place at the St. Tammany Parish Library, at school (if permissible), at your home, or at any other agreeable location.

A tutoring program can be tailored to meet your needs whether long-term or short term.

For students who struggle in math or have a hard time understanding difficult concepts, I can help.

In addition to Pre-Algebra and Algebra I, I have experience teaching and tutoring math at all middle school levels as well as Algebra II and statistics at the high school level.

Please call David or respond by e-mail to this posting.
