I am looking to start my own small childcare, four kids max for now. I am a very responsible 20 year old with three years experience working at a daycare. I have my own four month old daughter as well. My husband and I own our home on an acre of land, so there is plenty of room to be outside and have fun. If you're looking for extra one on one time for your child, small amount of kids, less colds and flu, and a flexible daycare, please contact me today to schedule a meeting. I am also cpr certified.

The price will be 125 a week, we can talk about discount for.
