Pennsylvania DUI? Are you ARD eligible?

If you have been arrested for DUI and think you might be eligible for the ARD program, contact an experienced DUI lawyer immediately. There are a number of limitations on this program which can prevent a first time DUI defendant from getting in this program (e.g. no insurance, someone was injured, property was damaged, license and registration problems). If this sounds like your situation or you know someone in this situation, you need an experienced DUI Attorney.

I investigate every DUI case I get. From going to the scene of the police stop to checking Breathalyzer calibration records to getting an independent laboratory to test blood samples, I leave no stone unturned in defending my clients. My fee covers representing you from the Preliminary Hearing through to Trial (there are many stages in between)

If you have a question about an arrest or about any legal matter, please contact me.
