Up and coming Milwaukee Lyricist, working on a bunch of material, some original, some from producers I've been working with. I also play guitar, and produce some. I'm working on solo material, and I would like to possibly form a group. I'm an intermediate guitar player and an amateur producer. Looking to form something with two MC's and, or singers, with a DJ/Producer, other musicians are also welcome. The most important thing to me is the dynamic between the people in the band, and common drive to make unique music. I would invite anyone who likes conscious, and socially aware music to send me a message. I would also like to make a point of developing a live show with a lot of energy.

I have lots of different influences myself, and I think a lot of influences really helps to create unique sounds, and blend them together. I personally would love to experiment with a combination of reggae, hip hop, funk, punk, indie/indiepop, folk, and EDM. Those are my favorite types of music. If you play keyboards, drums, guitar, and you think this sounds interesting, drop me a line. My lyrical style can be all over the place, from out there and weird, to deep, and honest. I like to explore different areas, subjects, I like to layer metaphors, sometimes crack jokes. Basically, I'm a student of lyricism, my style will always be evolving. I don't necessarily want to rap on every song but I want the music to be diverse and unafraid to do what any given song calls for. I love reggae, indie, indie pop, dance, dub step, acoustic, alternative, hip hop and lots of bands who blend styles.

I'll list some bands across various musical genres that I like, that way you people out there can get an idea of my weirdness, and you can see if it blends with your weirdness. I'm just going to scroll through, and list a very small fraction of the beginning of my iTunes list, so it'll all be in Alphabetical order.

Ab-Soul, Airborne Toxic Event, Alabama Shakes, Alt-J, American Authors, Amp-Live, Apathy, Arcade Fire, ASAP Rocky, Atlas Genius, Atmosphere, Avett Brothers, Avicci, Awolnation.

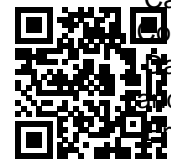

BoB, Band Of Horses, Bassnectar, Bastille, Beastie Boys, Beck, Benga, Beta Radio, Black Angels, Black Keys, Blackmill, Blink-182, Bloodhound Gang, Bob Dylan, Bob Marley, Broken Bells, Brother Ali, Buddy Guy, Buju Banton.

Cage the Elephant, Cake, Canibus, Capital Cities, Celldweller, Ces Cru, Chali 2na, Chance the Rapper, Chemical Brothers, Chiddy Bang, Childish Gambino, City and Colour, The Roots, Coldplay, Cypress Hill, Daft Punk, The Roots, Marley, Danny Nwols, Dave Navarro, Kenyatta, Darius, Cab, Diddy, Deftones, Diddy, Dirty Heads, Ed Sheeran, Edward Sharpe and the Magnetic Zeros, Empire of the Sun, Excision.

As you can see I'm all over the place.

I also have a few tracks that would be perfect for mix tapes that multiple MCs can jump on. So if you have a mixtape in the works, drop me a line.

I'M NOT LOOKING FOR PRODUCERS TO PAY MONEY FOR PRODUCTION. I'm only looking for producers who want to be a part of this group to produce, and DJ. Or possibly form a partnership with me to produce material. La Mackemore and Ryan Lewis as do. I'm looking for a solid producer because I've only been making beats,
