I have a box full of new necklaces from a company who liquidated their stock. The pictures are good representations of the styles, there are variations in each style.

The MSRP is $4,800 but I do not have the skills/time to sell them. I just got this dumped on me.

These are brand new - never opened in the case.

Contact me if you want to purchase these from me. I'm need these things GONE. I'm thinking $300 for the whole.
