Enjoy a Saturday morning stroll with your camera through the hilltop gardens and field to view blooming daylilies, horses and the historic barn at Arrasmith Farm. Like a Monet painting, the colorful blossoms splash across the gardens. These are not your grandmother's orange ditch lilies. Daylily hybridizing has created many new vibrant and pastel colors, with variations include ruffles, doubles, and long petaled spiders. Choose from hundreds of reasonably priced varieties to plant in your own garden and then select a free daylily from the bonus garden. Open Saturdays 10-5, a June 13.
