The GOP have come up with an idea straight from the same camp that lost the last two elections by a total of an entire nation. Which forces the brains at GOP think tanks into actually contributing the betterment of American life day to day. Given that most of what they stand for is deadly to the average citizen, as well as the planet, GOPers have come up with what all of us love a day off, say hello to Gunniversaries. A day celebrated independently and nationally, like a Presidential birthday or wedding, for us it is the day in which you registered your first gun. Maybe a free give away slug if you bring your registration to the local gun shop. Be the first to fire off a round in the name of self defense or justice, and you'll be the first outside law enforcement to do so in years. besides that, you'll be the Gunniversary Couple of the month. And all you Ammo-Sexuals trickle on down to the local CL and see what's brewing and where to celebrate your Gunniversary. Thanks GOP, now, back to stalling progress in.....
