I'm currently in the transitional phase of moving to Raleigh from Greensboro for my new job, and looking to start a hardcore punk group. Influences include Nails, Converge, Trap Them, Magrudergrind, Coke Bust, etc. Most of my money these days goes to my guitar rig (Blackstar 100 watt halfstack), but I also play drums and bass. Have a few songs written already, looking to form at least a three piece band. I work a lot from home, so I'm pretty easy to get in contact with. Feel free to text/email.,.
