I have a wonderful lovable and low key 10 year old French Bulldog that will need a home away from home when i am away for work. I have a new job in which i have to travel away two weeks and return home for one week off. this is ongoing.

YOU: Must be responsible, able to give him his daily medication, and understand his needs, and live in the Kittery area. Please have some references or credentials. I am not looking for someone to stay at my place. I am looking for someone to board him at your safe and clean home and socialize him with other pets if possible--a loving home that will make sure he is taken care of like i do.

I will provide all his food and accessories and handsome compensation for making sure he is well cared.
