This is a heated one bedroom apartment located on Lamb Street in Westbrook, close to everything. It is a daylight basement so well insulated in the winter and easy to cool in the summer. Full sized windows allows in plenty of light. This has a small kitchen and a 3/4 bath, living room and the bedroom. If interested, send some contact info and a bit of information about your situation, including the number of people and ages that would potentially occupy the apartment and when you would be available to move in. I'll get back to you as soon as I can.

I apologize about the photos. I will get better updated ones in the next couple days.
