Flea and worm treated , socialised in a warm an loving home environment , Yorkshire terrier dogs are renowned for a placid temperament ,and do not moult like other breeds of dogs so are great with a lot of people that have allergies , that is why they are so popular as a family pet . Great with young children . And very quick too learn . They are loving loyal , little dogs . That have quickly become the family favourite . These special little dogs require little, but lots of love and care .please text me for more information
