I have 3 year old male dwarf rabbit that needs a home. He is litterbox trained and very tame. Does not mind being held by older children and adults. He's calm and doesn't mind being brushed or having his nails trimmed. He doesn't like loud noises so a home with older children would suit him best. He really is a big sweetheart. He has been A spoiled boy and I'm looking for him a forever home where he will not be neglected and kept in a cage all day. He has been around other bunnies and got along great. He will come with a large pink pen which I used for his house, his litterbox, toys, bed, food, hay, litter, and the metal rabbit cage I brought him home in. Do not contact me unless you are serious about him and are looking for a companion. I can take calls and texts. There will be a small fee to ensure he's going somewhere.
