Here is the deal: I am a young (er) guy. I want to be in better shape and I need the accountability to actually do it. I also can't afford a certified trainer in a gym. Here is my proposal: I will pay $20 per week to work out with me 2x per week for 30 to 60 minutes weekdays either before 730 am or after 5pm (my work schedule). Lift, run, jog, hike, bike-your choice. Point is, I get out and do something.

I figure this would be great for college students with a some extra time on their hands and to make some extra funds. I am open to counteroffers and alternate situations. Prefer other guys to do this with. Hit me up with your thoughts and we will get to.
