Hello, I am needing to Re~home my 3 months old Yorkie puppy .He is absolutely gorgeous!! . He is wonderful with children of all ages. He is starving for attention that we just cannot give him. He has been raised with my three children that are under the age of 7 years old, niece's and nephews, another small dog, and cat. He's a lover not a fighter:-). He is 100% crate trained and knows basic commands such as sit, stay, go home (which means go to your kennel). He waits to be told to "eat" before eating his food. He is 1000 percent an affectionate dog and LOVES, LOVES, LOVES to be right UNDER your feet. He's not big on long walks as he is a bit of a couch potato but would enjoy a stroll down maybe two streets and back. He doesn't like car rides as he tends to panic and start to drool. If he must get in the car, my wife would pet him the entire ride and that calmed him down. He does not have food or toy aggression. He has been neutered so that isn't something you need to worry about. My family and I love this dog but he really does deserve a family that has the time to spoil him as he deserves to be spoiled. We live so far from work and with the commute to and from work, he is in a crate 13 hours out of a 24 hour day which just breaks our heart. We are asking a re~homing fee of 300.00 dollars which we feel is a reasonable fee that will ensure he goes to a loving family that can afford to care for him. Please do not feel bad if you cannot afford to care for him. We are asking for a re~homing fee of 300.00 dollars which we feel is a reasonable fee that will ensure
