i'm looking for a puppy so the dog i have now has somebody to play with =] hoping to find a little one who won't grow to be more than 10 or 15 pounds, with short hair. the dog i have now is on pet insurance and i plan on adding the new addition onto the care plan as well, so it will have life long medical care, grooming, training classes, and food deliveries. pet insurance is a monthly cost for the life of the dog, so i'm hoping you'll understand that i'm not looking to pay a large rehoming fee.

i have a large [for a small dog], fenced in back yard and i'm a block away from a dog park that we visit at least four times a week. i've had my current dog for almost a year and we're ready to give her a friend=] willing to wait for puppies to grow a little, so if you've got VERY little ones i'm still
