I know this is a long shot but I have to try something.

I am a middle aged overweight male who is very much down on his luck. I am a month behind in rent, just lost my job, I was running the kitchen at a bar and the owner decided he wanted to lease it out so he didn't have to deal with the kitchen period! I didn't agree with the new guy who started so I quit thinking I would find something else. Well, that didn't happen yet.

I am just being honest here, the reason I am heavy is because I suffer from depression and I have been drinking way to much! ( but haven't had a drink in 5 days.)

I have 3 kids that live with their mother, and I don't get to see them as often as I would like. Before I got kicked out, I was a stay at home dad for 3 years, so yeah I truly miss waking up with them in the mornings.

I am a good mam with a big heart, but I don't take any shit, but also don't start any either. I do speak what's on my mind and some people can't handle the truth. I can not stand people who talk behind your back.. Anyway

I am on here searching for someone who might be able to use an assistant or possibly have some kind of job for me. I am a very quick learner, great math skills, efficient, well organized and always thinking.

I have many ideas just no money to fund them. I would also be open to a loan of some sort if you have the means to do that. I would be willing to pay back with intrest.

I really want to stop felling sorry for myself and turn my life around and start getting back into shape, I was a pretty good looking man at one time. ( so I have been told.)
