Customers and tenants beware. Extensive videotape of antique mall owner burglarizing his tenants has been turned into police. The paper work evidence shows he has been doing this for over 15 years and uses his managers in the warehouse and front counter employees to coordinate and accomplish these burglaries. The name of the facility is Montgomery Street Antique Mall located in Fort Worth Texas and they have just opened up a new facility in Arlington, TX called Cooper Street Antique Mall. Linked is a lawsuit filed by his business partners beginning at page 10 shows theft of cash and property of over a million dollars from him and his wife between 2006-2012. Beware as the statute of limitations has not yet run on numerous thefts and staged burglaries and action should be forthcoming.
