Hi there! My name is Cleo and the people who rescued me and my pups asked me to take a moment and introduce myself. I am 2 years old, weigh a petite 29 lb, and they say I look like a Collie/Corgi mix. I am peppy and playful, house-trained, and walk nicely on leash. Classy and clever, I know "sit" and "come". My foster mom boasts of my genius and how easy it is to train me. I have not met any children in my foster home but I am so cheerful and loyal to my people, I would probably be the same with kind, considerate young ones. I delight in playing and snuggling with the other dogs here. I am oblivious to the cat and chickens. My foster mom told me to mention how well I ride in a car, and how quiet and undisturbed I am by all the activity around here. The noises of a loud T.V., the kitten crying, or even someone at the door doesn't get a rise out of me.

I have my quirks too. I have been known to kidnap the remote and carry it around if left unattended (Animal Planet anyone?), I have also been accused of swiping a sock or two....don't worry though, I don't destroy them! In fact, I am such a good girl my people don't crate me when they're out, they let me hang out in the big den they call a bedroom. Sometimes my foster mom gives us dogs a special treat in our food bowls, I don't like the other dogs near mine and will give a little growl but I am learning that's not a good idea because my foster mom takes away the food bowl. At regular mealtime, I eat peacefully with the others. One last thing I should mention....I got this thing for butter. If it is left on the counter, something comes over me and I just can't resist it. I confess, I have jumped up on the counter to get it! I really, really hope you like me and want to adopt me anyway (just put the butter away)!!!!

Cleo is spayed, up to date on vaccinations, and micro-chipped. An application with references, a home visit, and adoption fee are required. Please reply to this ad for more info.
