My Landlord says he has to go! Jacks is not even 2 yrs old yet , he is a giant baby and loves to be loved on. He will give you much love and joy. He is learning to talk and can say "Come here" "Hello" "What you doing" And a few other things. He loves to be held and talked to. Jacks will give you kisses, He is still young so can be taught plenty!

Jacks comes with a very large cage , the toys in his cage and what food he has left. His r-homing fee is $1000.00

You must have experience to take Jacks home !

call me or text - I will trade a car or truck for him if you have one for this amount that is nice and runs good.

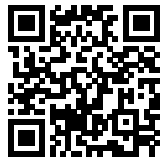

No need to text or call and ask me to give him to you as I will hang up - no not putting him in a free rescue no need to waste your time nor mine! We live in Tullahoma Tn (Coffee Co.) and this is where you have to.
