View Lou's Profile Hi - I'm Lou.

I'm a great dog looking for a forever home! I'm a sweetheart, cuddlebug was found on the street and believed to be 2 or 3 years old. My owner was never found and I've been fostered by a caring couple in Salt Lake. I'm neutered and have all of my vaccinations. I'm now looking for a new home. My owner says I'm beautiful & a loving pit bull. I live with another dog, but would do best in a single dog home. The foster couple do not have kids, so are not sure how I would do. Preferably a single person, or a couple! I'm quite the lover/cuddler and needs attention and hugs. I can also be pretty laid back, so I need some training, for walks! My foster parents say I'm an amazing dog, and deserve the best home. If interested, please write back with a little information about why you/ and your family would be a great fit for me. Personality test reveals the following about me: He enjoys being a couch potato and doesn't need much in the way of exercise to keep him content. He can be very focused on a task but can be distracted with a little bit of effort. He likes some order and a fairly regular routine. He is no coward, but takes a moment to assess new people and places before rushing headlong in. A little bit of caution is a good thing! He can be very affectionate and will often show it, but isn't overly pushy about getting attention. He likes to be close to you as much as possible, but seems to know when you want to be left alone.
