I will be making an ultra low budget feature film for $5,000 in January. Filming will be weekends for 4-5 weeks. Before then, I am in need of a personal assistant.

You will accompany to buy props, meeting talent or picking up food when we have a production or talent meeting, ect. I need someone that can start the first week of July.

This is a part time position. And pay is $9 per hour.

I will also be making one short film per month from July to December.

If interested in writing, directing or producing or casting. There will be an opportunity for that and that's additional pay.

If interested, respond with resume and one picture.

Please let me know, what got you interested. Thanks.
