Are you a business struggling to increase your visibility on Google, Yahoo or Bing? Have you invested thousands of dollars in other methods of advertising that have yielded unsatisfying results?

You need SEO!

Search Engine Optimization works at a fraction of the monthly cost that newspaper, radio or TV advertising sets you back. Instead of blanketing the population with a campaign that fishes for a small percentage of converting clients, you can catapult your business in the major search engines. With tactical methods that target people actively looking for your type of business, you can convert them into customers.

I'm Pat Mallon, and I run Sevens SEO. Contact me for a free market analysis and find out how SEO can help your business!
