

RockMetal Vocalist seeks full Band (Lakewood)

Location Colorado

I'm a 29 year old hard-rock vocalist that's looking to venture out and start/join serious projects n see where it takes us! I'm open to new opportunities and am extremely passionate about music; you should be as well! I'm very punctual and am rarely late to a practice... Never a show. Have a job, transportation, not into drug use and won't tolerate those who are. I have tons of experience performing, writing, recording..etc

My influences primarily consist of hard rock.. Staind, Smile Empty Soul, Seether, TDG, 3 Doors Down, Thrice, Shinedown, The Used, Earshot.... But I'm also a lover of music all around (like most people). Ellie Goulding, Eminen, Jesse James, Nappy Roots, Boyz II Men, Jason Mraz, and so on... Hopefully you're 'varied' as well, but not entirely necessary. It's all about how we mesh together.

So, as to what I'm looking for specifically.... I'd like you (and/or everyone) to be anywhere from 21-35, male or female (don't matter), be highly-intermediate to advanced at your instrument and practice regularly, the ability to practice as a band an absolute MINIMUM of once a week (otherwise what's the point..?), and hopefully a place TO practice... Can figure that out later. Please live within 20-30 mins from downtown-ish (Denver Metro Area). It's just proven to be a downfall in the past...

I'd love to join a full project that's looking to add powerful vocals to their mix. I'd like to stay in hard-rock, esp for original work, but I'd entertain the idea of different genres if we got along. Always been told I have a good 'country voice'. Haha But I'm down for hip/hop, pop, country, whatever.
