Lhasa apso female, purebred female, spayed, 6. Totally house trained. She never has accidents.

This dog is very loyal and want to be a close companion. She needs to go to an older retired person who is home lots of the time or someone who works part time and really loves spending time with her. She will insist on sleeping with you!

She is very small, only about 10 lbs.

Livy or Liver, but her real name is Olivia.

Lhasa Apsos are very loyal dogs. They can be wary of strangers, but will warm up to people you approve of. She Loves going for longs walks every day and needs them. Lhasas are also wonderful watch dogs. She will warn you when anyone comes near your residence...with loud barking. Otherwise, she's quiet and content to just be with you...and go for walks of course!

No kids...the breed for the most part just doesn't like small children.

Don't forget the Lhasas need to be groomed regularly. $45.00 a groom every 8-12 weeks. So it can get expensive...please consider first if you can afford her. No health issues.

Let me know what your situation is and I'll get back to you.

Until I find the perfect owner for my sweet!
